

Julia Mulligan

Helping you to feel safe and be safe in North Yorkshire

Advice Surgery

Julia Mulligan is your Police and Crime Commissioner, she is responsible for overseeing how crime and community safety are tackled, and for providing services for victims of crime.

Julia also has a responsibility to find out what your priorities are for your community. Her Police and Crime Plan is a reflection of your priorities and sets out a shared vision for North Yorkshire's police service and charts out our journey towards our destination.

If you have a community safety or policing issue that you want to discuss with Julia, call 01423 569 562 to book your appointment.
