

Chief Fire Officer NYFRS Recruitment Pack

March 2022

Introduction

Message from the North Yorkshire Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner

Thank you for your interest in becoming the next Chief Fire Officer for North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service.

I am looking to appoint an exceptional individual who will continue the work of modernising the way the Fire and Rescue Service operates in North Yorkshire at an important time for the future of the organisation.

As the newly elected Police, Fire & Crime Commissioner, responsible for governance and oversight of North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service, I am determined to ensure we continue developing a Service which is fit for the future.

We have a committed and passionate workforce who make a real difference to keeping the people of North Yorkshire and York safe and feeling safe. Resources are always constrained, and we need to continue the work to ensure we have a strong and sustainable organisation which is innovative in its response and preventative practices.

The successful candidate will be responsible for overseeing a significant transformation programme and implementing a new Community Risk Management Plan – known locally as the Risk and Resource Model. Given this challenge, applicants for the position will need to demonstrate experience of implementing change in a timely manner and driving transformation with the enthusiasm and commitment to bring everyone together.

Diversity continues to be a challenge for our Service, and I will be looking to the successful applicant to really catalyse a step change in this area.

This is an exciting opportunity to join and lead the Service, to ensure our communities remain some of the safest in which to live and work in the country, and deliver a modern, reactive and respected organisation which protects people and property and saves lives.

Details of the role and how to apply are in this pack, and if you would like an informal conversation with me about the role, please do get in touch.

With best wishes

Zoë Metcalfe

North Yorkshire Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner

About North Yorkshire, North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service and our family of organisations

North Yorkshire

North Yorkshire and the City of York make up one of England's largest rural fire service areas, covering almost 3,212 square miles. Stretching almost the breadth of the country from the Tees in the north to the Humber at its southern tip, it includes two National Parks and three Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty making it a very attractive place to live, work and visit, though it does bring challenges associated with rurality and travel distances.

The population of 820,000 is spread across isolated rural and coastal hamlets and villages, market towns and larger urban areas such as York, Harrogate and Scarborough. There is also a significant military presence at the garrison at Catterick, and every year the area receives over 20 million visitors. York is a major university City, home to over 21,000 students from across the world.

The area holds over 800 tourist attractions, 12,000 listed buildings, and major national infrastructure such as Drax power station. It is bisected by the East Coast Mainline and the A1(M), with other major trunk roads including the M62, the A59, A64 and A66. Altogether it has over 6000 miles of road, the majority of which is a web of small rural roads.

Our communities are diverse, by geography and demography. Scarborough has some of the most deprived areas in the country, whilst Harrogate and York have some of the least. Those settlements on our boundaries look outward to our neighbouring areas – to Leeds and Bradford, Doncaster, Hull, Lancaster, Darlington and Middlesbrough; our coastal communities look to the sea, while our rural communities are closely connected to the land. Our minority ethnic communities are small but focused, with strong links to communities in neighbouring areas.

North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service

North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service is one of only four in the country governed by a Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner. Transfer of governance took place in November 2018 following the development of a full business case and public consultation by the OPFCC which can be found on the Commissioner's website.

The Commissioner's Fire and Rescue Plan sets ambitious priorities of transformation for the Service, aligned to the national fire reform programme, to make it fit for the future. To fulfil these principles, and further reduce the current and foreseeable fire and rescue related risks in North Yorkshire and the City of York, we are redesigning our service model to prioritise prevention and protection activity.

We have recently commenced a transformation programme to achieve this, including the design and delivery of a new Risk and Resource Model (RRM). This programme will realign our operational focus, redesign our on-call model, consider the capabilities and equipment we need to modernise, and ensure we are effective, efficient and aligned to current and emergent risk. We will consult with staff and the public on our resource proposals at the end of May and implement a new RRM from September 2022.

We have a mix of shift, day-crew, on-call and volunteer stations. On-call stations provide emergency response across the county, predominantly in our more rural areas. We are very reliant on the on-call with around 55% of operational staff employed as on-call firefighters and 26 of our 38 being standalone on-call stations. The on-call model is outmoded and in need of reform and investment to improve availability of fire appliances in our more rural areas

We need to prioritise the need for cultural change within the organisation and to embrace a more diverse workforce. Embedding the new Service Values, Core Code of Ethics, and fire standards needs to be at the heart of all we do.

In 2019 HMICFRS rated NYFRS as good for its effectiveness at keeping people safe and secure from fire and other risks and some elements of how it looks after its people, and requiring improvement for its efficiency and for other aspects of how it looks after its people. The Service requires considerable investment in its assets and infrastructure and, while it now has a balanced budget, has substantial financial challenges to manage in the years ahead. Industrial relations are currently good, but the national position in relation to pay and the firefighter rolemap remains fragile.

Enable North Yorkshire

As part of the transfer of fire governance, the Commissioner set out plans to bring staff in enabling functions together as one team to provide services to police, fire and OPFCC to improve efficiency and affordability across the police and fire services in North Yorkshire.

Our finance, people, assets and ICT teams, as well as others, have come together as one team, under Enable North Yorkshire. Enable North Yorkshire went live from April 2019 based in the joint police and fire headquarters, with a mission to provide high quality, efficient business support services.

Enable North Yorkshire is headed up by a Managing Director, who is accountable to both the Chief Constable and the Chief Fire Officer for providing the services needed to support their respective operations.

North Yorkshire OPFCC

The OPFCC is a small, dynamic team that delivers a wide ranging and ambitious programme of work across policing, fire and rescue, criminal justice, victim and community safety matters in support of the Commissioner and the public of North Yorkshire. This includes research and policy innovation; public and partner engagement and communications; scrutiny, assurance and governance work; the delivery of the Commissioner's statutory functions; as well as having a dedicated commissioning team managing a portfolio of victim and perpetrator services.

The team maintains a presence locally, regionally and nationally working with members of the public, local authorities, regional partners and government departments as well as national Service and representative bodies. The OPFCC also triages and service recovers police and fire and rescue complaints, as well as handling a substantial amount of correspondence and case work from the public.

North Yorkshire Police

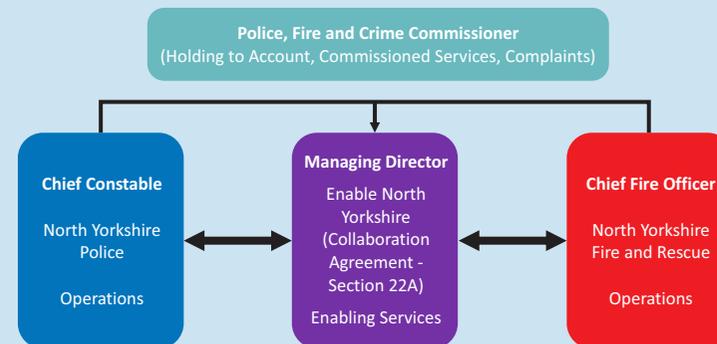

North Yorkshire Police serves one of the largest policing areas which is mainly rural with all the challenges of policing a dispersed, sparsely populated area. Conversely, the main population centres of York, Harrogate and Scarborough have vibrant night-time economies and largely urban patterns of policing demand.

North Yorkshire has a low number of recorded crimes, and currently has the lowest crime rate in England. In 2018/19, HMICFRS rated North Yorkshire Police as good at reducing crime, keeping people safe, operating efficiently and providing sustainable services to the public. North Yorkshire Police received a rating of "needs improvement" for legitimacy. Financially North Yorkshire Police is in a stable position, although efficiencies are necessary if the Force is to afford planned investments in the service over the next few years.

Outline organisational structure

The Chief Constable and Chief Fire Officer are jointly responsible for setting out the requirements of the collaboration and the services we need, delivered by the Managing Director. The Commissioner holds the Chief Constable and Chief Fire Officer to account for efficient and effective service delivery.

Job Description and Application Process

Salary

£128,647 to £136,250, inclusive of operational allowance.

Chief Fire Officer

The Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner for North Yorkshire is looking to appoint an inspirational leader who will continue the work of modernising the way in which North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service currently operates.

North Yorkshire is one of only four Services under the Commissioner model and in shared governance arrangements with the Police, bringing unique opportunities to drive collaboration and change.

The Service has an ambitious programme of transformational change and collaboration already underway, making this an exciting time to join and lead the Service as Chief Fire Officer. Not only will you have the opportunity to shape your senior leadership team, but you will also engage, influence and shape the future delivery of the Service to ensure our communities remain some of the safest in which to live and work. This includes embedding the work of our shared enabling services across Fire, Police and the OPFCC through Enable North Yorkshire.

If you're the person we're looking for, you'll have:

- The leadership style that motivates and inspires those around you, building confidence, trust and stability amongst the workforce.
- An authentic and engaging communication style, with the ability to build and maintain strong working partnerships both inside the Service and across the partnership landscape.
- You will value and not discourage difference, with a passion and commitment to drive forward transformation in respect of equality, diversity and inclusion (EDI) priorities.
- You will have the determination and passion to see through your vision for the Service providing clarity to all.
- Experience of leading complex transformational change programmes and will thrive on achieving results through teamwork.

Role Profile

Job Title:	Chief Fire Officer
Grade:	Brigade Manager/Principal Officer
Reporting to:	Police, Fire & Crime Commissioner (PFCC)
Location:	Service Headquarters
Designated Responsibilities:	All aspects of operational and technical management of the Service

Purpose of Role

- To provide overall inspirational leadership, as set out in the NFCC Leadership Framework's four levels of leadership, to North Yorkshire Fire & Rescue Service, promulgating, creating a compelling narrative around, and communicating the vision for the Service, engaging people to commit to and support delivery of that vision, ensuring that the Service becomes and remains an exemplary fire service that ensures the public are safe and feel safe.
- To have overall responsibility for the strategic development of the service, driving transformative organisational change, delivering improved community outcomes and results, increasing public and organisational confidence, trust and satisfaction and enabling the delivery of an effective and efficient fire & rescue service.
- To lead, support and continually develop the Strategic Leadership Team, acting with integrity, driving cultural change and performance standards of the Service, ensuring the development of inclusive and positive values and behaviours, diversifying staff to reflect the communities we serve, and making the fire and rescue service a great place to work for all our people.
- To lead the Service's people, from crew/watch managers, first line managers to whole time and on-call firefighters, promoting distributed leadership at all levels to create an innovative and empowered workforce, with excellent training and education to ensure continuous improvement of services to the public, acting as ambassador for learning through personal practice, inspiring and building people, and creating and sustaining a learning organisation.

- To support the health and well-being of all our people, embracing inclusion, diversity, innovation, and being open to alternative perspectives and strengthening the Service's ability to meet its objectives and deliver good outcomes.
- To hold direct operational accountability for the fire and rescue response to incidents, including major and critical incidents, and its effective command and leadership. To be responsible for influencing the development of fire and rescue response, providing a professional and efficient fire and rescue service, including, where relevant, input into national operations or standard setting.
- To provide North Yorkshire with an outstanding and well-managed Fire & Rescue Service, and ensure the fulfilment of statutory and legal obligations of the Chief Fire Officer in accordance with the scheme of delegation and Schemes of Governance and Consent which determine service governance arrangements and which set out the full roles and responsibilities of the Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner and Chief Fire Officer respectively.
- To define the requirements of North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service for services from ENABLE North Yorkshire and provide comprehensive and coherent direction to the Managing Director to ensure those services are properly provided.

Primary Functions:

To work closely together with the Police, Fire & Crime Commissioner, to deliver the Fire & Rescue Service priorities and objectives set out in the PFCC's Fire & Rescue Plan, and to take responsibility for the role, powers and duties of the Chief Fire Officer, as provided for by law and by local, regional and national governance frameworks, including but not limited to the Accountabilities, Behaviours and Development practices set out in the locally-adapted Fire & Rescue Service Professional Role Profile as follows:

- Formulate and guide implementation of key strategies, policies and plans which guide and improve service delivery, and reduce risk in the community, in consultation with key stakeholders, linking to wider plans and objectives, such as the Fire & Rescue Plan and the Community Risk Management Plan, to provide an effective and efficient fire and rescue service that meets current and future public need.

- Maintain availability for strategic operational command purposes as required by the Strategic Command rota and respond to operational incidents in line with Service policies, leading and commanding the operational fire and rescue service responses on occasion, in the most-high risk and high-profile instances, in order to protect the public and ensure an appropriate and effective response.
- Ensure efficient and effective management of the Service by leading, inspiring and engaging the Strategic Leadership Team; setting, and leading by example, flexible approaches to a workforce culture that promotes wellbeing and facilitates impactful professional development and performance management to create empowered teams that enable the achievement of the Service vision and goals.
- Develop and maintain effective management arrangements and processes, through compliance with the PFCC's local Code of Corporate Governance, primary strategies / policies and relevant regulatory responsibilities, to ensure effective decision-making and appropriate action at all levels/tiers of the organisation.
- Lead the Service, communicating a clear direction, setting the organisational pace, organisational culture and promoting values, ethics and high standards of professional conduct to enable an effective and professional service, providing and actively promoting clear, consistent, highly visible leadership across the Service, to build a culture of trust, high performance and continuous improvement.
- Lead and be accountable for planning, programme management, performance standards and quality assurance systems, driving a culture of development, change and innovation, undertaking regular evaluation of the activities of the Fire & Rescue Service, and identifying and using evidence-based service delivery opportunities to ensure enhanced productivity, provide value for money and achieve continuous improvement.
- Promote the Core Code of Ethics, Service values, champion the benefits of equality and diversity, ensuring the Service operates and promotes fair and open practices relating to employment and service delivery, ensuring compliance with standards of behaviour and codes of conduct, in accordance with the relevant legislation relating to equality and fairness.
- Support and engender a safety culture throughout the Service to ensure compliance with Health and Safety requirements and best practice.
- In line with Service policies and operational priorities, to convene, attend (Chair as appropriate) Business Continuity Management Team (BCMT) meetings for the purpose of resolving any potential or actual strategic interruption to key Service functions.
- Work closely and build excellent working relationships with the Chief Constable of North Yorkshire Police, the Managing Director of ENABLE North Yorkshire, and executive leaders of County and City organisations to ensure a comprehensive, coherent and resilient approach and response to community safety, including prevention and early intervention opportunities, broad impact critical incidents including those that require multi-agency responses, and to optimise opportunities for joint engagement to build confidence with the public.
- Develop and maintain strategic relationships with local, regional and national partners, effectively influencing and collaborating, to contribute to and diffuse improvements and change in the broader operating context and enable the achievement of the Service objectives.
- Foster and develop appropriate industrial relations with the respective representative bodies, and support and promote appropriate policies.
- Advise national bodies such as COBR on matters of public safety and national security to contribute to effective decision making that protects the public from serious threat and upholds the law.
- Liaise with the Chief Financial Officer in respect of effective Service financial management, determining functional budgets within the agreed framework as issued by the Police Fire and Crime Commissioner, and ensure the effective and efficient use of public spending in order to maximise value for money.
- Play an active role in national decision making on the development of the Fire & Rescue Service, to enable the effective co-ordination of operations, reform and improvements in fire & rescue services, and ensuring efficient use of public funds.
- Represent the Service at a local, regional and national level to the public, media and other external stakeholders to promote visibility, connect with the public and build confidence in the Fire & Rescue Service and value for money within North Yorkshire and the Yorkshire region.

- Contribute, where possible, to regional, national and international thinking, policy and guidance within an area of specialism to enable the continuous improvement of effective fire and rescue practice.
- Identify and assess regional, national and international developments that affect Service provision; informing and advising interested parties of the implications, formulating options so that implications can be effectively managed.
- Work with stakeholders at local, regional and national levels, with and external to the Fire Service, to influence and contribute to service strategy. Ensure effective communications are maintained with key Service stakeholders through the provision of appropriate reports, consultation documents, general updates and publications.
- In conjunction with the Strategic Leadership Team develop, implement and monitor information management systems to meet statutory requirements and to provide effective information and communication technology.
- Demonstrate a commitment to personal development in line with agreed priorities and objectives and actively participate in the Service appraisal system.
- Attain and maintain personal competence in respect of role map functions and any relevant / designated professional qualifications requirements.
- Act in accordance with PFCC's/Service policies, procedures and staff code of conduct.
