Home Secretary,

North Yorkshire's Police and Crime Commissioner's (PCCs) response to the joint Thematic report on "Getting Cases Ready for Court" dated July 2013

I welcome the work and findings of the joint review by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary and Her Majesty's Criminal Prosecutions Services Inspectorate into the quality of prosecution case files and note the one recommendation, which is specific to forces and links in with the "Stop the Drift 2" review recommendation.

There are no specific recommendations for North Yorkshire Police (NYP), but I welcome the report and will continue to work with NYP and Criminal Justice colleagues to improve quality and communication of case files between our organisations.

Yours sincerely

Julia Mulligan
North Yorkshire's Police & Crime Commissioner
