SOLICITORS ACT 1974

THE SOLICITORS' (NON-CONTENTIOUS BUSINESS) REMUNERATION ORDER 2009

Unless the bill overleaf is marked as being on account of work done then the following applies:

- 1 If you are not satisfied with the amount of our bill then Sections 70, 71 and 72 of the Solicitors Act 1974 sets out your right in relation to having the bill assessed by the court but you may be required by the court to pay the additional costs incurred.
- 2 We are entitled to charge interest on the outstanding amount of the bill, (in so far as the bill relates to non-contentious business in accordance with Article 5 of the Solicitors (Non-Contentious Business) Remuneration Order 2009), and will do so at the rate payable on judgment debts from one month after delivery of our bill.

- 3 If, after the expiration of one month from delivery, this bill remains unpaid, we will be entitled to seek to enforce payment of it, together with interest through the court.

Please return this slip if you do not require a receipt.
