4. How important do you think each of these is for the Police in North Yorkshire? (1 is not at all important and 5 is essential)

Changing the way the police work to improve the experience of the public, victims and witnesses of crime.	1	2	3	4	5
Training police officers and other frontline staff to be more compassionate and sympathetic to the needs of the public, victims & witnesses - delivering the kind of customer care that the public wants and expects.	1	2	3	4	5
Investing in the latest technology and technical expertise to ensure they have the necessary resources to target the modern criminal activity such as online crime.	1	2	3	4	5
Alongside other partner agencies (like the fire service), invest in crime prevention and community safety initiatives to help the general public in how to avoid becoming a victim of crime.	1	2	3	4	5
Alongside other partner agencies (like the fire service), deliver focused crime prevention advice to the most vulnerable or hard to reach people in society, those more at risk of becoming a victim of crime.	1	2	3	4	5
Alongside other partner agencies, deliver a service that deals with anti-social behaviour as well as public welfare issues such as missing persons and suicides.	1	2	3	4	5
Improve contact with the Police by investing more in the non-emergency 101 telephone service as well as other ways of contacting the Police such as online, texting, instant messaging and Social Media Apps.	1	2	3	4	5
Working even more closely with neighbouring Police forces to tackle 'cross border' crime. That is people from outside of North Yorkshire travelling into North Yorkshire to commit crimes.	1	2	3	4	5
Improving the way the Police deal with people who may have mental health issues including victims and perpetrators of crime and anyone else experiencing mental health problems.	1	2	3	4	5
