Guidance notes for applicants

Community Safety and Serious Violence Fund - Aims

The York and North Yorkshire Office for Policing, Fire, Crime and Commissioning (OPFCC) is committed to a commissioning approach to Community Safety and Serious Violence funding, with the aim of investing in evidence-based initiatives at a local level, which aim to reduce serious violence and achieve positive outcomes for individuals and communities.

Serious Violence Duty (SVD) Background

The Duty, introduced in January 2023, requires the OPFCC to convene partners including North Yorkshire Police, North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service, Probation services, North Yorkshire Council, City of York Council and the Humber and North Yorkshire Integrated Care Board to work together to prevent and reduce Serious Violence that occurs in the area, develop a Strategic Needs Assessment (SNA) and implement a Response Strategy to address it.

The full national guidance can be found here: Serious Violence Duty - Statutory Guidance \(publishing.service.gov.uk\)

North Yorkshire and York Approach

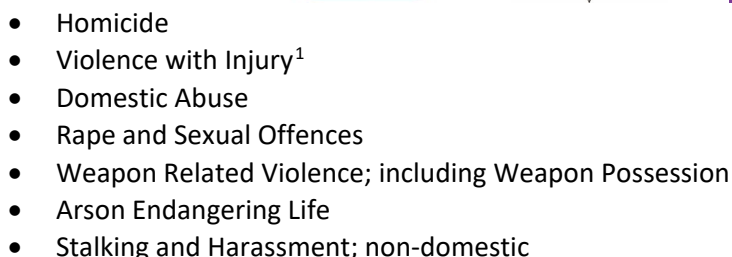

The aims of the North Yorkshire and York response to Serious Violence are:

- To understand the extent of violence throughout North Yorkshire through the analysis of characteristics, patterns of behaviour and the impact on the wider community.
- To establish the risk factors that increase the likelihood of violence, and how these factors can be reduced through prevention, diversion, and early intervention.
- To establish effective interventions in a variety of settings and monitor the impact on reducing serious violence these interventions produce.

North Yorkshire and York Definition of Serious Violence

The Serious Violence Duty is not given a set definition of serious violence, and each local area is encouraged to set their own definition.

The definition of serious violence for North Yorkshire and York reflects issues found within the local area, and the impact and prevalence of different types of serious violence. Therefore, for North Yorkshire and York, the following crimes are included in our definition of serious violence and were used during the Strategic Needs Assessment (SNA):

- Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG)
- Young People
- Alcohol and Substance Misuse
- Mental Health
- Deprivation and Employment
- Education

The Police and Crime plan, which all Police Commissioners must produce, sets out the vision and priorities for policing and community safety, as well as the objectives and ambitions that the Chief Constable will be held to account against.

Key priorities raised through consultation included public safety, with a particular focus on the safety of women and girls, violence, serious and organised crime, especially those crimes linked to drugs and county lines, crime prevention and police visibility in communities.

North Yorkshire and York Community Safety Partnerships

continually changes and despite significant organisational change, the need for partners to work together is essential.

The strategic plan for North Yorkshire Community Safety Partnership aims to identify the national and local influences that affect the agreed priority areas for delivery during 2022-24. A new strategic plan is being developed for launch in 2024. Priority Areas for Delivery:

- Partnership development (link across safeguarding)
- Community safety hubs (operational hubs that support local community safety delivery across North Yorkshire)
- Domestic abuse/ Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG)
- Early intervention and prevention (serious and organised crime)
- Hate crime and community cohesion.

Safer York Partnership is also in the process of updating its strategy. This will be the ninth strategy since it was established in 1998. The latest strategy was in November 2023 and the priorities included:

- Keeping City Centre Safe
- Counter Terrorism: Protect, Prepare, Prevent
- Domestic Abuse
- Safer Supported Communities
- Serious Organised Crime: County Lines, Exploitation and Modern Slavery
- Serious Violence

To monitor progress of the Serious Violence Duty, local governance arrangements have been established through North Yorkshire Community Safety Partnership and Safer York Partnership.

Outlined below are the key pieces of information required to be included, to maximise the chance of success.

All applications should include measurable outcomes and demonstrate how they add value or address a gap in delivery. Applications are most likely to be successful if they evidence how they will deliver positive change in relation to one or more of the key priorities; clearly identify one or more of the beneficiary groups stated; clearly state how they support links with Community Safety teams and evidence how they will deliver positive outcomes for beneficiaries of the project/initiative.

The final funding decision rests with the panel / OPFCC if required.

Application Form Guidance

Project Details

New / existing project (150 words): your response to this should identify if your project is new or existing. If your project is new, the response should explain how the proposal addresses a gap in delivery; what will this project do that existing services don't? If your project is existing, the response should explain how this funding will add value and expand or develop the project further.

Explanation of your project and what you hope to achieve (300 words): your response to this question should describe your project in detail (referencing the specific aims and priorities that it will support) and including;

- how your project adds value or addresses a gap;
- what you hope to achieve overall and how;
- who will deliver your project;
- who the project is aimed at supporting i.e. who will benefit most from your project (referring to the specific targeted groups it will support, how the project participants will be identified, targeted and referred into the project, how many people the project hopes to support);
 - For example, if your project is to deliver a diversionary activity to a targeted group of young people, how will you ensure young people most in need are identified to access and engage in the activity?
- Timescales.

How will the project deliver against North Yorkshire and York Community Safety / SVD key priorities? (150 words): your response to this question should explain how it will address the specific aims and priorities it is focusing on. What activities / interventions will be delivered that are linked to the priorities and how will this be achieved?

- outline the level of demand e.g. any information you have regarding the number of people in need (referring to the beneficiary groups and serious violence priorities that it will support);
- Consider if your scheme links in with other projects or partners. If it does, how will your project address a gap or add value?

- Individuals / groups not involved in offending activity; project targeted at specific location / community

For example, if your project is to deliver a diversionary activity to a targeted group of young people, how will you ensure young people who need it most can access and engage in the activity? What are the anticipated minimum numbers of individuals you will engage? What will they achieve from being involved in the project?

How will you measure the outcomes of your project and evidence success? (300 words): your response to this question should outline how you will measure that your project has delivered the outcomes you wanted it to; and how will you know if the positive change you set out to deliver has been achieved?

- What outcomes can you demonstrate from your baseline and how do these relate to the specific priorities and themes you are aiming to address?
- What is the impact and legacy from the project?
- What measures will you use to show success and positive change? For example, if your project is to deliver training to targeted groups to raise awareness, how will you know that individuals who took part increased their knowledge and are less likely to become involved in Anti-Social Behaviour or Crime?

Financial Breakdown

Please identify if this funding will fully or partially fund the project and provide a specific breakdown of the funding requested.
