

Performance Indicators in Fulfilling Statutory Information Requests

Reporting Period 30 April 2025 to 31 October 2025

Freedom of Information Requests

Below are relevant performance indicators on the number of requests received under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and NYP's compliance with statutory timescales.

Although FOI requests do not concern the compliance with handling individuals' personal data, these figures are relevant to demonstrate NYP's overall compliance with its transparency obligations under the FOI Act.

Reporting period	No. of FOIs received during reporting period	No. of FOIs completed during reporting period (includes closed FOIs from previous spreadsheet)	No. of FOIs completed within the statutory timescale	No. of open FOIs (2024-25 spreadsheet)	No. of open FOIs (2023-24 spreadsheet)	No. of overdue FOIs (provided from Oct 2019 onwards)	Percentage compliance rate within the statutory timescale

Other Information Rights Requests

Individuals have other rights under the data protection legislation, these include: the right to restrict processing, the right to data portability, the right to object to processing, the right to object to automated decision making, and the right to complain to the Information Commissioner. These rights are exercised less often than the aforementioned rights, for which further information is provided below:

Complaints made by data subject to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

During the reporting period, there were 4 complaints made to the ICO by members of the public in relation to the handling of their personal data under Subject Access Requests. 1 complaint from the ICO was concerning a rectification request which resulted in NYP decision being upheld by the ICO.

Other Information Rights

We have received 8 complaints directly from the data subject with regards to the handling of their data.

Independent reviews

The DPO conducts independent reviews when individuals ask for them. This sometimes alleviates individuals from complaining to the ICO. This reporting period there have been 3 independent SAR reviews.
